

Zenergi Portal

Take control of your energy with powerful,
instant-access data.

Data at your fingertips because you can't manage what you can't monitor.

Managing your energy can be challenging. Outdated processes, manual data handling and limited reporting tools can slow down efficiency.

That's where we come in.

Managing your energy should be simple and efficient. That's why, with our Bill Validation service, you'll get instant access to our leading Portal for streamlined data management.

Take control with reporting tools that equip you with a better understanding of your energy consumption to make smarter decisions.

Work faster, decide faster

Lightning-fast performance makes it easy to view, filter and download data without delay. With streamlined navigation throughout the platform, you can move quickly between tasks and accomplish more in less time.

Better decisions with smarter data

Our enhanced reporting tools include a library with eight bespoke reports covering everything from energy usage and costs to validation and budgeting. Save reports based on your own filters to share with stakeholders and access time and again. Easily export your data in the format that works for you, whether that's PowerPoint, CSV or PDF.

Effortless energy management

Save time and remove hassle with easy-to-use features. View bills instantly, submit meter reads simply and use our bulk download feature to get ahead. Your data your way with a centralised download hub with all your documents organised in one convenient place.

You're in control

Managing multiple organisations is easier than ever, thanks to seamless account switching. You'll also have control over site access, with the ability to assign specific permissions to individual users, helping you stay secure while keeping your team connected.

Access your energy data, when you need it, how you need it. Because you can't manage it if you can't monitor it.
